

FULL- DAY EXCURSION TO NICOSIA

Departure from Venue hotel:

Description

Nicosia is the capital of Cyprus and a must for every visitor on the island. Our tour will first lead us to the Cyprus Archaeological Museum where a huge collection of important archaeological findings are housed and through which the long cultural and historical heritage of the island is revealed.

Driving along the UN Buffer Zone and the old city of Nicosia, we will see one most unfortunate distinctions; the fact that this is Europe's only militarily divided city since 1974.

Situated within the Venetian Walls, in the heart of old Nicosia is the Archbishopric. The Byzantine Museum, which is one of the finest of its kind in the world and St. John's Cathedral located within its grounds, will be our next stop. We will then visit the Liberty Statue nearby.

'Laiki Yitonia' is a beautifully restored 18th century neighborhood within the Walls which has kept the traditional style of the old times' market, restaurants and narrow paved streets with local merchants and craftsmen displaying their hand-made products.

We will then walk to 'Levention' Municipal Museum which is located nearby. It is the only historical museum of Nicosia reviving the old ways of Cypriot life from ancient to present times.

The excursion will finish with a sumptuous lunch with local wine and drinks at a traditional tavern. Time permitted, we will spare some time for a stroll and some shopping.
